The Assault on Summer.

The American Celt, a widely-known Irish Catholic paper, follows up its comments on the recent murder of Keating, with the following concerning the attempted assassination of Summe::

Folk wing fast on the recent murder of Keating, an assault of the most aggravated characs ter has been perpetrated on Senator Sumner in his seat in the becate, by Mr. Brooks, a Member of the House from South Carolina. A Committee of inquiry was promptly and properly ordered the next day, by a vote of 93 to

The following are the remarks of the Whitewater Gazette to which we referred the other day. We suspect our cotemporary had not read the whole of Sumuer's speech, and was not familiar with the grossly abusive conduct of Bütler, which called forth Summer's sharp reply.

The Carette said:

"Many of the papers throughout the country are load in their sympathy for Mr. Sumner, and their execution of his assailant, Mr. Brooks. "The assault was undoubtedly a disgraceful and unuanly affair, and deserves all the con-demnation that can be visited upon it, but the agestion whether Summer is deserving of sympathy, is altogether a different one: his remarks in reference to South Carolina were a series of perversions of historical facts, and his allusions to Mr. Butler, of South Carolina. (which were assigned by Mr. Brooks as the cause of the assault) though fine rheterical displays, were couched in a great deal stronger language than is considered proper among gentlemen; and it is very doubtful whether any man has a right to make personal allusions in debate; and under the projection of parliamentary privilege, which would not be justifiable under other

TAN BARK .- The New York Tribune says : The difficulty of obtaining tan bark in many sections of the country has been so great that tanneries have been compelled to remove their works farther and farther into the forest region. It is stated that a large tannery uses up the timber upon a square mile of land per annum. and at this rate she country will soon be denuded of trees that afford bark for tanning, and people will be coliged to look up some substitute for tannin. Several plants grow abundantly at the South that contain the principle of tannin, and we believe also at the North.

TELEGRAPH.

LATER FROM KANSAS. COVERNOR SHINNOR'S PROCLAMITION.

The Independence correspondent of the St. Mare all Donaldson and four of his men were to the N. Y. Convention. killed near Hickory Point on the 3d inst. The Mars tall was in the act of ousting some men who : ttacked a party under Capt. Pate. The Free soilers had considerably increased in numbers, and yesterday were destroying houses, 146 EAST WATER STREET. MILWAUKER driving men, women and children from their habit tions near Bull Creek. A company of , 140 under Capt. Reid had left New Santa Fee in pursuit of the maranders. Report says Frani lin was not taken, although attacked by a large party of Free Soilers. Capt. Pate and comp my had been liberated by Col. Sumner, A who arrived at Black Hawk Point in time to prove it a condict between those suldiers under Pate and a party under Capt. Reid.

> The above is from a Border Ruffian, and is there ore not reliable. Shi nnon has issued a proclamation dated the Ith, v hich commands persons belonging to military organizations within the Territory not authorized by law, to disperse; that such organizations are illegal, and should they re-assemble will be disarmed by United States troops. All civil efficers are required to be vigilant in enforcing laws against offenders, and protecting citize is in person and property against all violone and wrong: that all law-abiding citizens of the Percitory, without regard to party name, or distinction must be protected in their persons and property, and all military organizations that resist the execution of the laws of the Territory, or disturb the peace there if, must be dispersed; and all aggressive parties from without the Territory be repelled; that the military force placed under the control of the Executive of this Territory, is ample and s: Melent to enforce the laws and protect 1855. citize is in their rights; that in carrying out this p oclamation, no inquiry is to be made as to party, but all persons and all parties are to be tre sted alike; that obedience to the laws, and consequently security to citizens of Kanana ar v primary objects.

> > All lawless violence within the territory must be re-ressed, in whatever form manifested, and the proclamation of the President of the U.S. of Feb. 11th, will be strictly enforced. Requisit on has been made on Col. Sumner for sufficient military force to insure obedience to. the p oclamation.

> > > Congressional.

In he Senate on the 10th inst., Mr. Crittens den it reference to the Kansas matters, said, they lad been in session nearly seven months. and a yet nothing had been done to remedy that disgraceful evil, which growing day by day and spreading the land through, was inflaming passions already too excited, not only for the peace of Kansas, but of the entire country.

Mr. Mason was unprepared for the consideration of the subject, and asked that it might lie over till to morrow. He had doubts as to the p opriety of taking any action upon this matter, as the President was commander-in-Chief of the Army, and had full charge of the matter; while entertaining the highest respect for the Senator from Kentucky, he did not think the condition of things in Kansas called for such a course.

Mr Crittenden replied that as Gen. Scott was an ole man, the President might feel some reluctar ce in ordering him on that distant service. but it his opinion the Senate ought to endeavor to contribute towards the prometion of peace

Mr Seward favored sending the Gen. there, F. FORD nt it ought it ought to be done by joint resolution, and that the preamble to Mr. C's resolution I comitted. Further consideration of the matter postponed till to-morrow. Ad ourned.

In the House, Mr. Burlingame presented resultions of the Massachusetts Legislature concerning the assault on Senator Sumner .-Laid on the table and ordered printed-221 members present, but as many had paired off with absentees, the House adjourned.
